1. Purpose
The Bulletin of JSSD accepts any qualified article motivated by general interests in "Design", irrespective of the field, the topic or the method of research. The paper should be written with enough care to be understood by readers of non-design fields.

2. Submission of Manuscripts
Submit with three copies and a original of the complete manuscript including illustrations to:

Bulletin of JSSD Editorial Board
C/o Department of Design and Architecture,
Faculty of Engineering, Chiba University
Yayoi-cho 1-33, Inage-ku, Chiba 263-8522, Japan

3. Types of Contributions
There are three types of contributions to the Bulletin of JSSD: original papers (less than 10 printed pages); reviews (less than 10 printed pages); letters (rapid report, proposal of new idea, etc., less than 4 printed pages). The manuscripts of the contributions should be written in even pages. Submission of a manuscript will be held to imply that it contains original unpublished work. Also, it should not being submitted for publication elsewhere, except the Bulletin of JSSD (Japanese), at the same time. Submitted material will not be returned to the author, unless specifically requested. Greater length will be unacceptable unless reduced by the author. An excess-page charge will be imposed for each page over the first limited pages.

4. General
Article should be written in clear and concise English and printed in good quality, Camera-Ready format in A4 sized white paper. Good quality printouts are required. The corresponding author should be identified (include a Fax number and E-mail address) in the contribution form. Full postal addresses must be given for all co-authors. Each sheet of paper must be numbered in pencil.

5. Abstract
A self contained abstract should be a concise summary of the whole paper. Do not write just the conclusion as the abstract. Abstract should be written in approximately 150 words understandable without reference to the body article. It should contain no citation to other published work. Further, please include up to 5 key words that describe your paper for indexing purposes.

6. Text
Follow this order when typing manuscripts: Title, Authors, Affiliations, Abstract, Keywords, Main text (Introduction, Method, Results and Discussions, and then Conclusions), Acknowledgment, Appendix, References. Concretely, manuscripts should in general be organized as follows:

1) Page margins: The margins of the top, the bottom, the left and the right are 20, 25, 17 and 15mm, respectively, and the column interval will be to be 8mm.
2) Font: All letters should be written with Times Roman or Times New Roman font.
3) First page: Title should be written with capital letter, 18 point size, in single column and aligned in centered. Subtitle, if necessary, should be written with normal letters, 12 point size, and should be centered in the single column. Name(s) of author(s) should be written in the same way as the subtitle. Affiliation(s) and mailing address(es) should be written with italic letters which are 9 point size, and should be centered in the single column. Abstract should be written with normal letters which are 10 point size, and should be aligned with both left and right margins. The margins of the left and right are 30mm, respectively. Key words should be written with italic letters which are 10 point size and are aligned with left margin. The number of key words are limited from 3 to 5 words.
4) Body text: All letters in the body text, except section and subsection titles, should be written with normal letters, 10 point size, in double column. Authors should make generous use of section and subsection titles, numbered consecutively (1., 1.1., 1.2., 2., etc.), to enable the reader to readily identify portions of interest. The titles should be written with bold letters which are 10 point size and should be aligned with the left side of each column.

7. References

References should be cited in the text by number within square brackets (e.g. Since Jerrams[1]) and listed at the end of the paper in the order in which they appear in the text. All references must be complete and accurate. References should be listed in the following style:

8. Illustrations

All illustrations should be provided in camera-ready form. Photographs, charts and diagrams are all to be referred to as “Figure(s)” and should be numbered consecutively in the order to which they are referred. All figures are to have a caption with bold letters which are 9 point size. They should accompany the manuscript, and should be adequately included within the text. They should keep the above-mentioned margins. Authors will be additionally charged at current printing costs for color illustrations.

9. Tables

Tables should be numbered consecutively and given a suitable caption and should be adequately included within the text. Tables should keep within the margins. Large tables should be avoided. If there is a large volume of data to be presented, an attempt should be made to divide these over two or more tables. Each table should have a brief and self-explanatory title with bold letters which are 9 point size. Column headings should be brief, but sufficiently explanatory. Vertical lines should not be used to separate columns. Leave some extra space between the columns instead.
